

ASSOCIATE CITY ATTORNEY
(LITIGATION AND EMPLOYMENT)

STARTING SALARY: $53,602

The City of Atlanta Department of Law is seeking qualified applicants for an entry-level appointment. The Litigation and Employment Practice Group is a defense-oriented practice that represent the City of Atlanta and its employees in matters pending in both the federal and the state court systems. In addition to being a municipal defense practice group, the Practice Group also provides legal advice on employment and public safety issues.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

The applicant must possess a Juris Doctorate degree and a member in good standing with the State Bar of Georgia. In addition, the applicant should be capable of assisting with all stages of litigation including but not limited to discovery, alternative dispute resolution, motion practice, and trials. The ideal candidate should have at least one to two years of litigation experience in one or more of the following areas of practice: administrative hearings and general civil litigation in state and federal courts (with an emphasis on Section 1983 actions, employment litigation and business litigation). Applicants with prior experience representing a municipal or other local government are encouraged to apply. The applicant must be licensed to practice law in the state of Georgia. The position will require extensive contact with various City representatives and committees as well as the City Council.

The City of Atlanta Law Department seeks qualified motivated individuals who are capable of working independently and require limited supervision.
